

BCM110 Peer review of the Group Presentation

Consider each aspect of the presentation carefully, and think about some constructive feedback to give the presenters. Return this form to the group after their presentation.

Delivery: How clearly was the topic stated? Was the pace right, could the audience follow easily? Did you feel included and engaged? Did the presentation seem natural, or was it memorised, or read? Were the speaking voices loud enough? Were they fluent? Was the pronunciation clear? Was the vocabulary and grammar ok?

Your comments:

Content: Were key terms explained? Was the importance of the information clarified? Were claims supported with evidence? Were any conclusions drawn or important implications indicated? If audio-visual aids were used were they relevant and helpful?

Your comments:

Organisation: Was a plan of the presentation obvious? Was it always clear where the talk was heading? Did the talk keep to the point? Were main points restated?

Your comments:

Overall position on this scale:

BCM110 Peer review of the Group Presentation

Consider each aspect of the presentation carefully, and think about some constructive feedback to give the presenters. Return this form to the group after their presentation.

Delivery: How clearly was the topic stated? Was the pace right, could the audience follow easily? Did you feel included and engaged? Did the presentation seem natural, or was it memorised, or read? Were the speaking voices loud enough? Were they fluent? Was the pronunciation clear? Was the vocabulary and grammar ok?

Your comments:

Content: Were key terms explained? Was the importance of the information clarified? Were claims supported with evidence? Were any conclusions drawn or important implications indicated? If audio-visual aids were used were they relevant and helpful?

Your comments:

Organisation: Was a plan of the presentation obvious? Was it always clear where the talk was heading? Did the talk keep to the point? Were main points restated?

Your comments:

Overall position on this scale:

